Garden Walks by Author & Columnist Robert Haehle
at Bonnet House

FORT LAUDERDALE, F.L., March 2, 2009 - Bonnet House Museum & Gardens is adding two special tours of the Gardens to the calendar this season. On Sunday, March 29 and Sunday, April 26 from 10:30am – 12:00pm visitors will have the opportunity to tour the Bonnet House Gardens with horticulturist, author, garden editor and radio show host Robert Haehle. Mr. Haehle is a horticultural consultant, gardening writer and was the host for The NewsRadio 610 Garden Show which aired on WIOD (610 am). He has a B.S. degree in environmental design from the University of Massachusetts and an M.S. degree in horticulture from the University of Delaware's Longwood Program and is a former county agent for Broward County, Florida.

Mr. Haehle has written numerous columns and articles for The Sun-Sentinel including South Florida Home & Garden and Florida Nurseryman and has written two books, Native Florida Plants and A Garden Diary-A Guide to Gardening In South Florida. In addition to his newspaper column, he maintains a website with garden tips and as the regional reporter for National Gardening, Mr. Haehle writes a bimonthly garden column covering central and south Florida.

The cost of each Garden Tour is $10 for members and $15 for non-members. A special house tour rate will be available after the Garden Walk for $15. For registration or more information, please contact Linda Schaller at 954-563-5393 ext. 137 or lindaschaller@bonnethouse.org.
